The New Comedy.

We are to have it Saturday night in "A Brass Monkey," with all the new music and stage business. Said the New York Evening Press.

The Byron Theatre was crowded last night by an audience assembled to laugh over Charles H. Hoyt's latest farce, called "A Brass Monkey." The piece is neither better nor worse than its predecessors. Mr. Hoyt having long since touched the apex of absurdity in this style of entertainment. The "business" of "A Brass Monkey" is, however, almost all of it new, is clever of its kind, and is presented with a skill and vigor which will probably insure the success of the piece.

The burden of the acting falls upon Flora Walsh, a clever comedienne, and upon Charles Reed, an old negro minstrel, who exhibits considerable humor.

Do not be deceived by sham pretensions. If you want an overcoat for self, boy or child at a genuine reduction, all along the line go to John Irwin's. Front Clothing Sale. The price we name is like self—gold dollars for 50 cents.

Natural Gas Gossip.
The return of J. Frank Payne to the city awakens renewed interest in the natural gas project. He was hustling about to-day looking after the preliminary plans for beginning operations. The books will be opened at once, and those actively interested will put down their names for blocks of stock, the total capital stock being $25,000. The purpose of the company as heretofore stated is to assess only one-third of the total stock, that amount to be used in contracting with a company to proceed with the search. As soon as the stock is taken there will be a business meeting of the stockholders to elect officers. About fifteen letters have been received from parties who want to secure the contract for drilling. The work may be commenced within two weeks.

The Senate Committees.
The final arrangement of the Senate Committees has been announced. The chairmanships of the important committees are as follows:

Judiciary—Hadley, chairman.
Judicial Department—Johns, chairman.
Railroads—Eckhardt, chairman.
Warships—McNab, chairman.
Finance—Hammer.
Revenue—Washburn.
Appropriations—Seecrest.

Senator Johns is also a member of the following committees: Judiciary, Appropriations, Insurance, Labor and Manufactures, Elections, Mines and Mining and Rules.

A couple of ice merchants down in Pekin are quarreling about an ice privilege in Pekin lake. Every morning each man marches a small army of men, armed to the teeth, down to the bank of the lake to be sure the other has not infringed on his rights. Inasmuch as there has been no ice and probably will be none, this sort of exercise suits the employees quite as well as cutting ice. As the chances grow less for securing any ice the feud over whose ice it shall be grows in intensity.

Boys and Girls Meeting.
Mr. Kennedy asks the boys, girls, school teachers and parents not to forget the boys' and girls' temperance meeting Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the rooms of the W. C. T. U. A name will be given the society on this occasion and all should have a say in the matter.

The Old Papers.
One of the old subscription papers signed in 1884 to secure the state fair for our business men and citizens has been discovered, and may be seen at the public meeting at the court house to-night. The amounts subscribed that year range from $5.00 to $300. Can these be renewed? If so, it will be an easy matter for Decatur to put up the $20,000 bond to qualify as an applicant for the state fair for four years. Attend the meeting to-night and bring a friend with you.

This morning the noise of slamming doors in the court room was so annoying that Judge Vail ordered the door leading into the sheriff's office and the outside door locked. He added that if people had business in the sheriff's office they could go through the jury room.

JOHN NICHOLS, insurance agent, was injured last night in making a jump from the Wabash train from the west as it was stopping for the target. Fearing perhaps that the train would not stop Mr. Nichols jumped too soon and was hurled upon his head, inflicting bruises that will linger with him some days. The wounds were dressed by Dr. King.

MA. H. WAGGONER, who assisted the board of supervisors and acted as investigating committee as an expert, is in the city making some tentative reports for the use of the committee who are prosecuting the bondholders. No matter what the result of these audits, it is certain that these bondholders got their bootleg and the trend of the court rulings is that when the supervisors allow this to be done the bondsmen of the official is not liable. The board of supervisors may not take all the blame on their own shoulders—Springfield News.

At the meeting of Deacons Commandery No. 8, Knights Templar, held last night, the following officers were installed: W. H. Starr, E. C.; W. H. Aonf, G. C. S. Duffee, G. G.; T. W. Who is Rev. G. W. Gue?
He is pastor of one of the leading churches at Rock Island, Ill. A man of broad and liberal mind, cultured intellect and a heart full of sympathy for humanity. He comes to Decatur on the 24th inst. to lecture for Dunham Post 141, G. A. R. The citizens of Decatur may not realize that Rev. Gue has just the kind of mind, as well as the experience, to enable him to discuss his theme in a masterly manner. Besides, every lover of humanity will have ample motive to patronize the lecture in the object for which it is given, viz, the relief fund of the G. A. R. Let the impulse of charity rule.

HARD coal, all sizes and best quality Dec-13-dit F. D. Caldwell.

Bright Outlook.
"Well, what is the outlook for a building boom in Decatur this year?" was the inquiry put to a brickmason to-day. The answer was very encouraging. He said he knew that there were an unusually large number of plans being prepared and that operations would open up early in the spring. About the first ground to be broken was the reporter learned from another source will be the wide entrance to the new Grand Opera House on South Water street. On the north side of the entrance will also be erected one three-story store building, and in the fall the entire space up to the court house will be built up with a handsome block.

Spore Gets a Clerkship.
Mr. O. R. Spore, one of the local pension attorneys, has received notification of his appointment of clerk to the Judicial Department Committee of the Illinois Senate, of which Senator Johns is chairman. The Senator securing that committee instead of the Judiciary. Mr. Spore is at Springfield to begin his work and will receive $3 a day, or $90 a month during the session. It was through the influence of Mr. Johns that Mr. Spore got the appointment. He will have considerable clerical work to perform at times, particularly while the committee is in session.

Tax death of the youngest daughter of J. H. Pickrell, in Chicago, from diphtheria, will be heard with extreme regret by the many friends of the family in this county. It is only a year or two since Mr. Pickrell lost another daughter from the same dread disease. The remains of both have been brought to Mechanicsburg for burial, the funeral of the one who died on Tuesday taking place yesterday.

This afternoon Captain Pullen, of Bloomington, the G. A. R. department inspector, left for home. He was at Atwood last night and will inspect a post at Wapella to-night. The Captain was with Major Wells, of Niantic, and Major Steele, of Decatur, several hours to-day. They gave him the freedom of the city.

A SECRET meeting of the Democrats of the seventh election district was held last night over Adam Blenz's meat market. What's up?

State Fair Meeting.
The state board of agriculture, at its meeting on Feb. 19th, will locate the state fair for the years 1890, 1891 and 1892. If Decatur will bestir itself it may secure the location, which will go a long way towards making the matter permanent. A meeting of all the citizens will be held at the court house on Friday evening, January 18th, at 7:30 o'clock and it is earnestly hoped that there may be a general attendance. The specifications of the state board will be on hand, so that citizens may have some idea of what they will be required to do.

M. F. KANAN, Mayor.

After Telephone Companies.
Representative O'Toole, of Chicago, is another man in the Illinois Legislature who is putting on the armor to fight corporations, and yesterday he introduced a bill to regulate the charges by telephone companies. His bill provides that telephone companies shall not charge to exceed $3 per month for each telephone and where there are more than one in use by the same firm the charge for the additional number shall not be to exceed $2 each. It also provides that in public buildings between towns the charges shall not be in excess of 15 cents for the first five minutes conversation. There is a determination to regulate the corporations this season, and there will be many more bills to follow out of which some good legislation can be sifted when the Legislature gets down to actual work.

Mrs. E. A. GASTMAN entertained the members of her Sabbath school class of the Baptist church at her home on College Hill last evening in a very pleasant manner. Chess, geography and A, B, C cards and social chat, served to while away the hours. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Julius Westernman, Frank Mead, Lewis Conrard, Al. Bower, Lynn Barnes, Floyd Gaudman and Elmer Bower.

Tax dining-room at the New Deming is being fitted up in elegant shape by the firm of Linn & Scruggs. The newest style of paper is being put on the walls and ceiling.

Mrs. WOODWORTH's magnetism appears to be pervading the churches. Last night at the revival meeting at the First M. E. church, at Springfield, after Dr. McElroy had cautiously alluded to the danger of being carried away by religious delusions, one of the ladies fell over in a trance, while the entire congregation was much in Mrs. Woodworth's meetings. Something of a sensation was produced, but the reverend pastor quieted the people by saying, "Don't be alarmed. The Lord will take care of her" or words to that effect.

It is a case wherein the ownership of a horse said to be worth $150 is involved. The same horse is the one with which Berry Fowler was connected in the lower courts some months ago. The entire transaction will be testified to the bottom at the present hearing and the jury will bring in its verdict.

The funeral will be held at Illinois to-morrow. Mrs. H. Buck, who was an intimate friend of the deceased, went to Chicago yesterday and will return with the remains.

Swine Breeders' Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Illinois auxiliary association of expert judges on swine, which was organized in Decatur a year ago, will be held at Delavan January 22 to 25. The meeting will be held at the Delavan house in rooms engaged for that purpose. Meeting to convene Tuesday, the 22d, at 10 a. m. There will be three sessions each day. Part of each day will be devoted to practice in scoring the different breeds of swine. The work of scoring will be done in the Delavan house barn. All the leading breeders of swine throughout the state are expected to be in attendance, and the opportunity will be given to all breeders of swine to join the association, and thus learn the use of the score card and get the ideas and experience of the principal breeders of the state. James Hankinson, of Maroon, is the president of the association.

Getting Ready.

Billy Myers is training at his home in Streator, Illinois, under the instruction of Tom Lutz. Jack McAuliffe is training at Beloit, Wis., under the guidance of Billy Madden. Myers and McAuliffe are to fight next month.

Justice Curtis, who was indisposed yesterday is on duty to-day. He is hearing the Remington wife abuse case this afternoon.

What It Costs.

An exchange says that the lowest cost of getting cattle ready for the market is 2½ cents per pound. An average bullock weighing 1,000 pounds costs the producer $25. He is sold for $30, which gives the raiser 20 per cent. profit. After passing through the slaughter house, his hide, meat, tallow, etc., are sold for $37, a profit of 20 per cent. Then the retailer takes the 500 pounds of dressed meat for $30. He gets 15 cents a pound for choice cuts and an average of 7 for the rest, making a total of $48.75, an advance of more than 60 per cent.

State News.

After the tax of this year is paid the debt of Monticello township will be only about $30,000. Eight years ago it was $102,000, nearly all bearing 10 per cent. interest.

F. P. Apperson, near Urbana, raised on two acres of ground 50 bushels of wheat, receiving $35.36 for it; plowed the ground and raised 500 bushels of turnips on it; and in one corner raised $720 worth of potatoes. All this was done last year on the same ground.

It is learned from the report of the state auditor that during the past eight years not a dollar has been lost by the dishonesty of a county collector in Illinois. There are 112 counties and 3,000,000 people this is certainly a fine showing.

It took the new state treasurer, Charles Becker, two days to count the money which State Treasurer Tanner turned over to him. While less fortunate states have been compelled to count deficits and bawled an empty treasury, Illinois has $3,000,000 in hand cash.

Nearly five hundred pounds of ear corn was shipped from Champaign on Tuesday, via the United States express, to Paris, France, where it will form a part of the American exhibit at the world's exposition. There are several varieties of the corn, and it was grown upon the farms at the University of Illinois.

The Burden of the Sticker.

The sticker is, I believe, the appellation by which the girl without a chaperon is known in the mystic circle of the boys about town. The sticker, in her highest form, is something which freezes the young blood of youth, and makes the newly parted pair of middle age stand on end. She is, of course, not charming. She is apt to be old and gushing, and like a wicked witch, she dies, no man pursues. It is just the opposite way. If she has firm hold of a partner, he may as well give up all hope and cease for ever to yearn for liberty. When he has danced with her six consecutive times and is arriving at the stage when one foams at the mouth and dies, he says, with quietude:

"I haven't got any," says the sprightly creature.

The promenade round the room in heavy silence. The man whom the victim knows avoid his wretched, beseeching eyes, and when they see him, they avoid him. He is not charming. He is not charming. He is not charming.

Special to Gas Consumers.

When any of our customers are annoyed with "poor light," which they suppose comes from "poor gas," they should notify the company at the office, 125 North Water street, (Ward & Thayer), when prompt inspection will be made to ascertain the cause, so that the remedy may be applied.

The difficulty in every instance will be found in an obstructed passage, either in the pipes or burners, as the gas itself is under constant photometric test, and is furnished to the consumer at full pressure. Hence it is the duty of the company that every consumer shall have the benefit of the full without hindrance. J. K. WARREN, Pres., 125 North Water street, Chicago.

Mr. Hughes relates that while acting as assistant engineer on the Granton, he frequently returned on one of the engines from Granton to Edinburgh. On these occasions he observed that, although the signal lamps were lighted, the lights of which were visible to him a long way off, he could not tell him he was close upon them. He thought whether they were red or green. These are the facts of the case. He was not mistaken, but happily they are visible to the majority of color blind persons when strongly illuminated. Railway guards, therefore, are less liable to mistakes by night than by day. Inability to discern any colors at all is very rare, and, in fact, has never been satisfactorily proved. A color blind person may have good eyesight, and be able to see other things. The defect is not occasioned by any disease in the eye, but seems to have its origin in the brain. A red green color blind person sees only two colors on the spectrum; all the colors on the side of the red (warm colors) are confused together and all on the side of the violet (cool colors) are confused together. Yellow is never confused. Yellow is the one color which is always distinguishable. It is a curious fact that color blindness is often associated with a corresponding inability to distinguish musical sounds. —Medical Register.

Special to Gas Consumers.

When any of our customers are annoyed with "poor light," which they suppose comes from "poor gas," they should notify the company at the office, 125 North Water street, (Ward & Thayer), when prompt inspection will be made to ascertain the cause, so that the remedy may be applied.

The difficulty in every instance will be found in an obstructed passage, either in the pipes or burners, as the gas itself is under constant photometric test, and is furnished to the consumer at full pressure. Hence it is the duty of the company that every consumer shall have the benefit of the full without hindrance. J. K. WARREN, Pres., 125 North Water street, Chicago.

Mr. Hughes relates that while acting as assistant engineer on the Granton, he frequently returned on one of the engines from Granton to Edinburgh. On these occasions he observed that, although the signal lamps were lighted, the lights of which were visible to him a long way off, he could not tell him he was close upon them. He thought whether they were red or green. These are the facts of the case. He was not mistaken, but happily they are visible to the majority of color blind persons when strongly illuminated. Railway guards, therefore, are less liable to mistakes by night than by day. Inability to discern any colors at all is very rare, and, in fact, has never been satisfactorily proved. A color blind person may have good eyesight, and be able to see other things. The defect is not occasioned by any disease in the eye, but seems to have its origin in the
